“ *To Lilly's Family,
My mom, Peggy, also 91, knew Lilly from high school. They were part of several couples who stayed lifelong friends who had decades of wonderful, happy times playing cards, having picnics, giving bridal showers together, and simply being there for each other.
My mom and dad were the first couple to marry and have a child (me) so I had the fun of growing up part of this amazing group of people. Your mom and dad, Ray, always made me feel special.
Our parents were rare people who married for a lifetime and who believed that family and country always come first. We have missed them all and now we will miss Lilly and cherish our special memories of this beautiful lady.*

*Love,
Peggy and Barbara Fowler*
