“ When we lose someone we love in death. It hurts so bad, there is nothing we can do to bring them back to life. The Bible gives us hope for our love ones in death. At Isaiah 26:19 says: " Your dead will live. My corpses will rise up. Awake and shout joyfully, You residents in the dust! For your dew is as the dew of the morning, And the earth will let those powerless in death come to life." Laurie

“ Linda and Dennis started out as customers but soon became friends. Every year at Christmas she would make goodies for my son, she was very fond of him and he really liked and appreciated her. She was so caring and nice, always talked about Megan and her dogs. I will miss her coming by our office, she was always happy and smiling. Prayers for her family, we are so sorry for your loss. “ Linda was a very dear friend who I enjoyed seeing at the Armada Flea Market every year. She always was so kind and we had many get togethers at her cute and charming home. She made me feel so loved❤️ I feel so blessed to have known her and to call her my dear friend. Rest well sweetie! We will miss you dearly

“ Linda was such a caring person. She sure loved her family. She also spoke of her dogs as if they were her children. We had some great conversation. She was my client but quickly became my friend. Rest well my friend. You will not be forgotten. Coleen.
