

Linda Louise Hall

April 10, 1948 - January 28, 2024

Linda Louise Hall was born to Raymond and Eleanor Francis (Friedrichs) on April 10, 1948 in Detroit Michigan. Linda was raised with her 3 brothers and 2 sisters who one of the many prides of her life and who loved and adored her. She will be remembered by all those who knew her as the most kind, gentle, and loving human being they've encountered. Her devout Catholic faith was a powerful and guiding force in her life from the start and it was reflected in her constant devotion to prayer for all those whom she loved. If you ever met Linda, even in passing and she knew of your need, you certainly found your way onto her prayer list.

Linda spent her career as an RN working the majority of her career on the pediatric ward at Port Huron Hospital. In her role as a nurse, Linda often played a critical role in selflessly caring for numerous family members through many health challenges like Cancer and end of life care. Her caring heart and nature coupled with her guidance of her faith made her a beloved nurse and caregiver for family and stranger alike.

On December 5th, 1970, Linda married Donald Hall with whom she had her 3 children: Jeff, Kevin, and Lisa. While the marriage came to an end in 1993, Don and Linda transcended the normal separated family dynamic remaining the best of friends throughout the rest of their lives. Don and Linda each played a key role in supporting each other through many ailments and health issues later in life. Their love and devotion to one another remained strong until Don preceded her in death on August 29, 2018.

Linda lived an amazing life and left a long and deep legacy that will live far beyond here 75 years of life. Linda is survived by her 3 children, Jeffrey Hall and his wife Lisa along with their daughters Ashley, Alicia, Addison and son Nick. Kevin Hall and wife Alecia along with their 2 daughters Ava and Addison. Lisa Ganop and her husband Marc along with their daughter Alivia. Also, her beloved siblings Greg Francis and his wife Sue, sister Janice Pryzwara and her husband Dennis, brother Mark Francis and his wife Ann, brother Ron and his wife Sandy, sister Kathy Kaletto and husband Andy. Also, Linda is survived by numerous nieces and nephews each of which she loved and took tremendous pride in. Linda is also survived by countless cousins and their families who held big place in her heart.

Linda will be missed by all who knew her, but her example will live through her children, grandchildren, and family for generations.
