

Lisa G. Anderson

June 28, 1963 - August 25, 2020

On August 25 Lisa went to be with her Lord, her dad - Leonard Sytek, and her poodle - Ginger. She was the beloved wife of Chuck for 34 years. Loving daughter of Barbara (the late George) Limberg and the late Leonard Sytek. Dear sister of Valerie (Ralph) Maltese, Gail Cable, Andrea (John) Klinken, and Laura Ghedotte. Dear daughter-in-law of Margaret (James) Meyer. Dear sister-in-law of Debbie (Bob) Browy. The family wishes to acknowledge Gale McIntosh for the many years of dedication and friendship displayed in caring for Lisa. Also survived by many nieces and nephews. In the early 90's Lisa authored a children's book "Proud To Be Me, Peewee Platypus" which paralleled her struggles with her health.

“ Gail, and family.

There are no words, other then I care. I have lost a sister, and you can't replace that pain. It's sad that we go thru so much pain while grieving, when our loved ones are called home... I am certain you all know it, but your sister now gets to live with a completely healed body and in a beautiful place with Jesus. I pray for peace in your hearts while you are grieving.

Love, Laurie, Scott, Sara and Alex

“ I remember the day when Lisa and Laura finally came home from the hospital awhile after they were born. Such beautiful and sweet babies! I enjoyed being to babysit a couple times for these sweet girls. There have been so many years filled with love and friendship between our families and a special spot in our hearts for Lisa and her challenges. The Lord is holding her now. Kathi (Oldani) Vetrano
