“ 45 yrs... My best friend and sister and partner crime . How will the world ever know what has been taken from them. Your 7th birthday I asked you what you wanted and you said "I want your mom to knit me purple slippers". You got them and kept and cherished them. To the day when we were 9 and my mom died you picked me up from ice rink at State Park. From our many adventures... and there were many our rode trip to Florida 1991 from Orlando at Church Street Station were Tim made us try "FLAMING JELLYBEANS" and we were afraid our hair would catch on fire from all the hairspray we used!! To being pregnant with KayLeigh and Cayla taking birthing classes and getting some what yelled at by the instructor because we couldn't stop laughing and Tim saying he didn't know us! To the births of those beautiful girls.Baptisms and first birthdays same doctor for our kids We knew every wound and every moment in time of each .others lives.To me fixing your veil before you walked down the isle to marry Eddie. What do I do now ... I am broken and my heart is shattered! We had plans old and gray watching our great grandchildren. I don't know how to go on with out you I truly don't! 45 years... and will the world ever know what we lost. Rest in peace my beautiful sister and I will always remember Love , Maggie

“ I would like to send my prayers to Ciara, Cody, and Cayla. I know this must be a very hard time to be going through, but I am always here if you need anything. Your mom was full of energy and always had life in her eyes. Especially at birthday parties when we were younger. Again, I'm always here if you need anything or just to talk.

“ I've had the priviledge to have known Lisa and her family for almost forty years and I'll cherish every minute I've known her. She was so full of life and so much energy and always laughing. Even though things are sad right now, be thankful for all those times. Everyone who had the opportunity to have her in their lives have been truly blessed. I will miss her terribly but will always have the great memories to think back on and laugh. Xoxo

“ I remember going to school with Lisa. But then we re-connected when our children, her Ciara & my Tyler registered for pre-school. When they got to Kindergarten, she approached me & wanted to meet the Mom of the boy playing "doctor" with her daughter on the playground at Kennedy Elem. We looked at each other & hugged, bringing back our own childhood memories. In fact, Ciara told me last night that her first kiss was with my son. Now, they are both graduating in 2017. As adults, her home was always open & inviting to stop by & say hello. I'm gonna have to find a new way home to not pass her house cuz it will be too sad. Our family loved you Lisa & always will. Wish this was a bad dream that I could wake up from. But it's not so RIP Lisa & be the beautiful angel we know you are. Hugs & prayers to Cayla, Cody, Ciara, Jeff & Sandy. All my love - Kelly Kolassa

“ Lisa was my very first friend. Three years old our mothers told us. We were inseparable. I do not remember her ever not beeing in my life. Living across the street from one another then down the block. Always near to me. K-12 , weddings, babies, bdays, for almost 50 yrs. you will always be in my heart and a part of who I am today. You were the glue that kept many of us together.

Love you Sissy!
