“ Dear Nancy and John,
We just got word of your daughter Lisa's death on February 11, 2010.
We were in California at that time so we did not hear of it until now through Frank Bologna's e-mail. I have thought so many times to call you to see how she was. But you know how that goes. Time flies away from us. We can't express how deeply sorry we are to hear of this sad news. You and Morissa and all your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Much love and deepest sympathy. Sara
P. S. I will definitely call you or visit shortly after you return from Florida on April 18th.##imported-begin##Sara & Bob Scrivano##imported-end##

“ It's March and I just found out about your passing... I cried and cried because I not only felt guilt but joy for you that you would no longer suffer... I am sooo deeply sorry for not being a better friend to you than I should have... I have so many memories that I will cherish forever.. Your voice is on my voicemail and I will never erase it, and will listen to it always, just to be reminded on what a wonderful person I have been blessed to know in my lifetime...##imported-begin##Sue Fabera-Cole##imported-end##

“ Hey Sweets,
You were my bestfriend for so very long. We have now done it all and you may rest. I am so happy that now your health, your legs, and your laugh will be restored. I can hear your laugh in my mind, but cannot recall the last time you truly laughed. Now you are free. I will miss you forever and ever.
Until we meet again, my dearest friend...
I love you,
Vick###imported-begin###Vicki Criner###imported-end###

“ My beautiful sister, you fought so hard and I am going to miss you dearly every single day. Someone so special can never be forgotten. My heart is breaking that we will no longer have our daily phone conversations. I will miss your laugh and the sparkle in your eyes. Rest in peace sis.###imported-begin###Lynn Rausch###imported-end###
