“ Lois was a special member of our Macomb Center for the Performing Arts extended family. She was pleasant, kind and always wanting to help in any way she could. We shared many tales of our grandchildren. She will be missed at our retired members luncheons. My thoughts and prayers are with all the family.

“ I'll always remember my Aunt Lois for her positive energy and generosity. She always had a small present for each of the kids at our family euchre Christmas party and ensured everyone had a number for the ornament exchange. I'm not sure who got more excited, the person ending up with "best" ornament or Aunt Lois. She will be missed that's for sure. A loving nephew, Bruce.

Lois was so sweet. She made you feel like you were friends forever. Next time you meet it was like you had just visited yesterday. The world was a better place because of her.
