“ I think about you and Aunt Betty all the time. I always enjoyed those Saturdays with Greg and Paul and those great hot dogs you made us for diner. I can still remember my Aunt Betty taking we places and later on she always made me feel special. I always looked forward to seeing her on those special Saturdays. Please keep in touch, I miss talking with you and my cousins.

Love,

“ *Dear Zientek Family,
Lonie was my mother's (Emily Kowalec)best friend and she was my godmother. I always received cards and gifts on every birthday and Christmas. I couldn't have asked for a better godmother. She loved to talk with my husband about her passion, golf, and was very kind and thoughtful to my three children. The last time I saw her was at my mother's funeral two years ago. She recently sent me a note saying she was on oxygen now and "life was not the same". I know she has found my mother in heaven and they are "doing lunch" together and no longer suffering. My sincerest condolences to your family.*
