“ I just got the call today.....Hearing of Aunt Loretta's passing was extremely sad. When I think of my "Aunt Uggie" It takes me back to my early years and fantastic family times. She was like my second mother when I was young. She would come over and grab me for one our weekends. Everything from going to work with her at the Volunteers of America in Detroit, to going on my first road trip with her up to a relatives house in Belair to just spending weekends with her at her house in Madison Heights. She was one of the first adults ( besides my parents ) that had faith and believed in me. She always had a kind word for me and one of the thing's I will always remember is her special thermos containers of Spaghetti-O's that she would sneak into the hospital to me as a child. She would put her hands on my face and call me her Suzy Girl. Rest in peace Aunt Loretta. I hope you know how much you were loved....Forever our Scarlet Lady <3
