“ I can't believe it's been 15 years...
I lived on Susan street,
I had know idea moving in...
All the wonderful people I would meet.

I feel so blessed to have found such a place,
With unbelievable neighbors...
And one special face.

He could light up a room...
Which most people will say,
But he lit up MY heart,
From the very first day.

The first voice that I heard..
The first neighbor to greet,
He said, "If you ever need anything,
I'm right across the street."

It turns out, I walked over MORE than
A few times....
From loaning me a tool,
To lending me advice,
If I ever needed help...
Lou never thought twice.

His voice so unique...
And humor so strong,
Oh how are talks, could get kind of long...
Until he would say, "Let me go bug the wife",
Which we all truly know...
Was the love of his life.

So many great times,
We'll keep in our mind.
Because people like Lou..

Are so hard to find.

*Always joking around, with that sweet
Smile on your face...
You now smile down on us,
From a much better place.*

*I thank God quite often...
We chose this house to buy,
And after reading this,
You know one special reason why.*

*We love you Lou, and may you rest in peace now,
Because you truly deserve it. xoxox -Kathleen Jirjis*

*When visiting my sister (Kathleen) I looked forward to seeing Lou who always! put a smile on my face. ...Such a dear, sweet, good man. I know how much Lou and Irene mean to you, Ghadeer and the girls. Your tribute to Lou is so beautifully written and I know it flowed straight from your heart. I agree, dear sis, that "people like Lou are so hard to find". An angel on earth now rests, peacefully, with God in beautiful Heaven.
Love to Irene and family...

“ Dearest Big Louie!

What a wonderful man, now you are flying with the angels watching over us all from Heaven above! You were like a father to me, always treated me as one the 'favorite girls'! Thank you for being a great Grandpa to Jason and Alicia and that little Gina girl loved you too! May you rest in Peace until we meet again!

*Love you...
Cindi Lou!!!*
