“ Baby Lucas Alan, you have been loved from the moment of conception by your mom, dad and all your family members and their friends. Now you're a precious Angel, who will be forever in all their hearts and making each and everyone of us more compassionate and grateful to be a part of your short time here on earth. Your mom, dad and family are really beautiful examples of how their over abundance of love positively touches each other and spreads to all that cross their paths. May God wrap His protective, caring arms around each of them as they grieve. With prayers and love, Bob and Mary Miller
