“ I remember you were a very kind woman and I love tell you valued family so much, especially your children. You are a very good artist and I loved the picture of the red poppies you painted and gifted us on our wedding. Rest in paradise until we hug again

“ My Aunt Lucille was an important part of my childhood. She was a new mother when I was about 9 and taught me everything about babies. She loved being a mother and her kids were the light of her life. She was loving, kind, generous, joyful and fun. Even toward the end, she still had her sense of humor. She was a gift from God to all who knew her. We will miss her.
