“ We share the sadness the Waselwski Family must feel at this time. It's comforting to reflect on Jesus promise that " all those in the Memorial Tombs will hear his voice and come out." (John 5:28,29)

“ My deepest sympathies to the Waselewski Family. May you find comfort in the memories you've shared together an in the "God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulation."(2Corinthians 1:3,4) And who promises that soon sickness, death, and pain will be no more.(Isaiah 33:24; Revelation 21:3,4) May these beautiful promises from the Bible warm your heart and brighten your day. Sincerely, Glenda

“ Just saw on Facebook that your mom had passed away. My prayers and condolences are with you Donnie and Andy. While I haven't seen her in years, I have often told friends and my nephews how we used to play baseball and if we weren't on the front porch or playing tag on our block when the street lights came on, your mom would first yodel your names and if she started in on the rest of us we all scattered and ran home.

My girls and I are having pierogi tonight for dinner, paying homage to the woman who made them better than anyone else's I have ever had. I've missed her vivaciousness. We cannot be there this evening, but all of the family is in our thoughts and prayers. She is finally able to rest peacefully. We love you all. love, Lisa, Joel, Morgan, Mya and Rex

Ciocia Lu, you will surely be missed by all who love you. I pray that you have found comfort in God's hands and you are at peace. No more suffering or pain. You are now an Angel in Heaven to watch over your sons and their families. Love you much!

“ Dear family, I am remorseful about your loss and like to extend my deepest sympathy for your loved one Waselewski, Lucille. From personal experience I know that the death of a love one causes many different emotions which are somewhat unpredictable. The Scriptures contain some practical advice. There is a time to weep according to Ecclesiastes 3: 1, 4. So don't hold back the tears. Remember, they are a natural and necessary part of grieving and even God's Son Jesus Christ wept. The Bible gives us the best comfort during times of grief. (Luke 23:43; John 5:28, 29).

“ I have so many fond memories of Lucy, the house on St Aubin, the Christmas parties, the reunions at her house with the pool, her amazing cooking, her 'no nonsense' attitude, and so much more. She ruled with a iron voice but a heart of pure gold. My heart goes out to Don & Andy and their families and to Dorothy, who was such a special friend. She is finally at peace. God bless you, Lucy, as he blessed us by allowing us to know and love you.
Much love, cousin Melanie and Family.

Tim always talks about how Lucy thought him how to ride a byke and play baseball. I always remember how she tried to teach all of us All the Polish foods. Lucy enjoyed her family parties, the swimming pool, and just plain life. How can we ever forget her great smile and voice? Don, Andy and families, and Dorothy, we will keep you all in our prayers. God love you, Lucy, our memories will keep you in our hearts.

I always enjoyed Lucy's company and her zest for life. Any time that we make pierogi, we think about her. (ours are not as good as hers but we are trying) We were blessed to have her in our family. Much love to Don, Sue, Andy and Kitty and their families and Dorothy too.
