Lou was one of the first friends I made when I joined First Presbyterian Church. She was a friendly, out-going person and was always a joy to be around. She will be truly missed by all who knew her.

“ Lou was my buddy in church, I would always look for her and sit right next to her and give her a hug. We shared many moments like this on Sunday at First Presbyterian Church. I will miss her smile and her comments. She truly was a special lady to me. God has a new angel in heaven now. Love ya, Fran.

“ I have lost a wonderful friend and will miss her dearly. We shared 35 years of our lives together. Serving on Deacons at our church together created a bond that has lasted and deepened through all these years. 4 of us ladies became "pewmates" and when it was time to "pass the Peace" we did a group hug before greeting others.

She was a classy lady. She had style and was impeccable. Often I would start a phone call to her with "Hi pretty lady." She loved to share and laugh. No matter what the situation was, we always cheered each other up.

When Lou was ill or needed help in some way, we would offer to give her a hand. She almost always declined, saying "Some day I may need my friends." Well, at 100 years of age, I thought "someday" was now.

Whenever we could not reach Lou, we worried until we knew she was safe. Then, when we found her, I would always tell her "Don't worry Lou. I'll always track you down." Well, I guess this was the last hunt.

I will miss Lou greatly, there will never be another like her. I pray she is at peace with her loved ones and god, and hope she knows how much she was and still is loved.

God be with you, Lou. Mary Anne Calcaterra
