“ Please accept my deepest condolences. Losing a love one no matter how old they were is never easy. The bible states that 'He(GOD) will actually swallow up death forever and will certainly wipe the tears from all faces'.(Isaiah 25:8) Not only will death will be no more but a resurrection will take place by means of his son, Jesus. John 5:28,29) May these scripture give you hope and comfort during this time.##imported-begin##Mrs Butts##imported-end##
