“ Dear Family of Marco Cicerone,

I want to express my sincere sympathy for the loss of your loved one. You can be assured that comfort and encouragement can be found in the Bible. At Revelations 21: 4 you can read of a time when pain and suffering will be no more. What a wonderful hope. Please take care of yourselves.

Sincerely

“ Cicerone Family- You have our deepest sympathies on the death of your father/grandfather. Know that our hearts go out to you in your time of sorrow. May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort you now and in the days ahead. Although no words can really help to ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every thought and prayer. Sandro said the other day what he will miss the most is the great stories your father told him over the years, he enjoyed listening to him every time he told a different story.##imported-begin##Adele and Sandro Giustini##imported-end##

“ Dear Anina,

I am so sorry to read about the death of your grandpa. I used to watch him, watch you, at your basketball games at Marian. He was so proud of you. I always said hi to him, he would just smile and nod his head when I said what a great play you had just made. He watch every move you made and I sensed that he loved watching you play.

It is a great regret that I didn't get to see you play a basketball game your senior year. I used to say, "If she is that good as an underclasswoman, just think how great she is going to play as a senior!"

I did come to see you play a soccer game at Bishop Foley, your junior year (I think).

I saw your mom as we both walked from our cars and we said hi. You played a great game and I hollered your name several times but of course so were other people.

I wonder what college you are in and what sports, besides basketball, you are playing.

I pass your mom's college every day on my dad to work. I work down the street at Marygrove College where I am a Campus Safety Officer, but I don't let any kids call me Mama G, that is just for the Marian kids.

We have a Marian girl who goes there, Mia Cusello (sp). I see her about three times a week. I didn't know her very well.

You take care and know that I am really sorry about the loss of your grandpa. Tell you dad I am sorry for his loss also. Hi to your mom and Russ.

Love,

Charlene##imported-begin##Charlene Genther (Mama G)##imported-end##

“ Dennis and Dave, Mary, Anina, and Russ,
We want to pass along our deepest sympathy for the loss of Dad and Grandpa. We know that Marco is now resting comfortably, free of any pain and afflictions. What a joy it is to know that he is reunited with your Mother, and walking with his Savoiur. May you experience Christ's peace at this time of sorrow, and yet celebrste the wonderful memories you have of your father and grandfather.

“ Cicerone Family, our thoughts and prayers are with you.

*I can't comprehend just how sad you must feel
For the loss of someone you love.
This sorrowful time must still feel unreal
And you're looking for strength from above.*

*I hope, from my heart, that your pain will decrease,
That your spirit will gain strength again,
And I pray that your faith will create inner peace
And that God will send blessings--Amen.*

“ My sympathy goes to the family of Mr. Cicerone. Dave, Mary, Anina, Russell, Mary Lou, Vince and my good friend Dennis. I guess he won't be asking me "What part of Sicily are you from"? I know you will miss him. You can take comfort in knowing your family made his later years comfortable and happy!##imported-begin##Ann Mazzara##imported-end##

“ Dear MaryLou and family, While raising my own kids there has been a steady flow of occasions where I've hugged them, scolded them, cheered for them, worried about them and loved them in ways that bring to life memories of my Mom who I lost many years ago. I'm reminded of the love of family and how her spirit remains with me in so much of what I do. Lou, we never really lose our parents.##imported-begin##Bill and Ann Zeiler##imported-end##
