“ Grandma Marge was a truly special woman. Her example taught me and many others to live with kindness, give forgiveness freely, put family first and live an honorable life. I will always remember how she would prepare a lavish table of fresh fruits, incredible breads bought from her favorite bakeries, and her incredible cooking even if we were just there for a short visit. Grandma would always be rushing to see if anyone needed anything or how she could help those around her. While she may be gone, her values live on in all of the lives she touched. I am beyond grateful to have been fortunate enough as to have her be my grandma. We will miss you, Grandma Marge.

“ The most important things in Mom’s life was family, worshipping Jesus Christ, and gardening. She followed in her mother’s steps. My grandmother Regina will certainly be proud of the woman she now welcomes to Heaven.

Mom took great pride in her flowers. Gardeners are special people. It takes patience and perseverance and love for living things to grow a garden or beautiful flower. Mom brought beauty and peace in to the world. But through everything Mom went through, she managed to keep her priorities straight. What can be more important than loving and showing love for your family? How can some of who are blessed with so much forget to be thankful to God, while somehow Mom kept her faith through all her trials.

This is a wonderful legacy. This is a wonderful example to follow. Mom would say keep focused on what is truly important, not only when your life is easy, but when it is difficult too.

I share both our joy in the gift that her life was to us, and the pain that her passing brings.

I will remember the joy she brought to my life.

One of my favorite people in the world. My dear aunt-in-law was a beautiful example of how to live with love, kindness, caring, humility and perserverance. She was so easy to be around. My thoughts and prayers are with the family.
