“ I have known Peggy since her Clintondale teaching days. She lived close to me then and we would go for long walks, then stop for a coffee and donut and just spend a while talking. We walked home after. I enjoyed that. We were in a Birthday Club with other friends for a long time. I am going to miss her cheerfulness, smile and expertise on books. Her friendship meant a lot to me. Rest in peace dear Peggy! Love, Michele Wirsing

“ I am very sorry for your loss. Margaret was a very kind and caring friend to my late mother, Patricia Bowers. I enjoyed visiting with Margaret as well during my time as a volunteer at the library. May she rest in peace.
