“ We will truly miss Aunt Andy. We will miss her when we visit the cottage. We will miss her at the bridal showers and the baby showers, the weddings, graduations, and all of the other family gatherings Aunt Andy faithfully would attend. We will also always remember what a fun, kind, and wise aunt that she was, as she followed the example of Jesus. We are truly Blessed to have had her in our lives.##imported-begin##Amy and Greg Clark##imported-end##

“ Dear Uncle Fred, Rick, Kathy, David, Steve, Jane, Jim, Holly,

My prayers are with you all at this time. I will always remember Aunt Andy as a very loyal wife, and dedicated mother. Aunt Andy and Uncle Fred were great models of a holy and Christ filled marriage and family. Within their marriage they were joyful in the little things of life: spending time with family, loving each other, supporting extended family members, drinking coffee, talking around the table. Loyalty comes to mind when I think of Aunt Andy and Uncle Fred. I remember when Aunt Andy's baby was still-born, how much sorrow there was in her heart, yet how faithful she remained that God would restore her. I will always remember what a good friend Aunt Andy was to my mom. They were sisters, but also best friends. They just understood each other and accepted their differences. What a testimony to how each of us should be. I just loved hearing stories of their youth. Aunt Andy felt blessed with her four loyal and kind sons, but it was fun to see her embrace her daughters-in-law, and see those relationships develop as well. Aunt Andy was so very proud of her children, and her grandchildren were the joy of her days. You have all blessed her with your lives. She can now help us ever so much now that she is in Heaven. I am confident she will be praying us all back to the Church. The one church that she believed in and lived as a dedicated child of God. Uncle Fred, I can only imagine how your heart is, resting from the care you have been taxed with during the last four years, but missing the love of your life. I will pray for you daily. May you be comforted by all those who love you.

I will be with you in spirit, and prayer. God holds you all in the palm of his heart. Thank-you for your example, and love through the years.

Love, mary##imported-begin##Mary Rheume##imported-end##

“ Dear Fred and Family,
We were next door neighbors on Barlow in Detroit. Even though we haven't seen you in a long time we have fond memories of the old neighborhood. We also attended St. Raymonds. We now live up north in Tawas City, sorry we are unable to attend. We remember well Andy and her boys and the "visiting over the fence".
May God bless and heal you all, our prayers and thoughts are with you.

“ Thanks to everyone that responds to this guestbook. The internet is a wonderful thing and the messages that are here will be relayed to Dad as soon as we get them. All of you have been so kind and generous to our parents or the rest of the family in this time of sadness. Please let Mom live on in joyful memories and do not hesitate to pick up the phone or stop by and share with us anytime your memories. Hope to see you all at the funeral home.

“ Steve, Jane, Sam, Joe, and Ray,
We both know where you are and you are in our hearts. What a great lady and friend Andy was. We will miss her kind gentleness. She made us feel like we were a part of her life and family. She has been a part of our lives since our early days at St. Rays. Boys...we are sure you will always have the best memories of Grandma Plieth. We all know that she had a direct ticket to Heaven.
