“ I never forget the time that Mrs. Pierce set me straight when I was a young teenager being disrespectful to my mother. With tears in her eyes she scolded me for my behavior and she was right. It must have taken a lot for her to do that. She was not only looking out for my mom, but she was teaching me a lesson that I remember 30+ years later. May she rest in peace.###imported-begin###Jeffrey Jezak###imported-end##
