“ *To Maria Family
What a nice person we would sit with her at the 8:00 am rosery at St Therese before the mass would start. We would talk about Italian food If she did not show up for church I would call to see if she was all right. May she rest in peace. Diane & Larry Ulanski*

“ Maria was a great mother-in-law with a heart of gold. We would often run into each other around town and take time to catch up. She would always say "make sure you tell everyone hello from me" and we would end our chat with a big hug. I remember her homemade sauce, and Sunday meals. She and Guy were the best Nona and Nonno to Dominic especially when he was born as he was their first grandson. But like Maria I'm sure she spoiled every grandchild that was born after that.

Maria, I'm sure the Angels welcomed you with open wings with all the kindness you gave to me, my children, my grandchildren and all those who were lucky enough to have known you. May you finally rest in peace with husband and mother. You will be dearly missed.
