“ Dear Family,

We are overwhelmed by the news of Maria's passing.

Maria was a delightful, sensitive and beautiful young woman whom we know by her residence at the Trotter House during her schooling at the University of MI. A colleague saw the news in the paper and informed us just yesterday. We send our deep condolences to you and pray God's strength to you at this time. May He keep you in His everlasting arms.

Much love and prayers,

Sincerely,

“ Sergio, I am so sorry to hear of Maria's passing. She was always smiling and had good things to say about everyone. I remember at Trotter House when we were in a staff meeting, she told me that I needed to wear brighter colors because it enhanced my outer appearance. I have been wearing bright colors since. I will miss you Maria. I feel like a part of me is missing.

“ I was really saddened to hear about Maria's passing. We were friends in high school and college. She had such a beautiful spirit - full of grace, charm, intelligence and wit. She had the one of the richest alto voices I've ever heard. I will always be thankful for her encouragements that gave me strength when I needed it as a teenager, and I wish to pass those same sentiments on to Mike, Sergio and to Senor Canales. I wish the family peace and comfort.

Love,

“ Dear Ronn, girls, and Canales family,
I was deeply saddened by the news of Maria's passing. I was just thinking about two weeks ago about trying to get Maria, Carolyn (Muszynski) Lee, and myself together. We were all classmates and friends at St. Alfred's and Richard. We all shared many great times over those twelve years, and I know it has been many years since we were all together. I will keep your families in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Marisa Claeys Carroll##imported-end##

“ I really don't know what to say about losing Maria. She was my close friend as a child and into high school, and there are so many memories over the years that just flashback in my mind. It is so much like a punch in the stomach--so taken off guard. I always thought that we would have forever to be friends, and this proves and reminds me that life is so transient. Just thinking about all the years at St. Alfred school, sleep overs with her brothers tormenting us, cutting her hair in 8th grade (big mistake). Our first using make-up together, eating rice and tortillas served by her grandma. I know there are many entries here about what a kind person she is--but she has always been that type of person. She stood up for kids at school and was never unkind one day of her life. I have always and still will have Maria's life as being a star. I have not been close with her for the past few years and knowing that I have not talked with her for so long will be a lesson for the rest of my life.###imported-begin###Jill Hale Zueski###imported-end###

“ Ron, Liliana, Ava, Mr. Canales, Sergio, and Mike,

We were so deeply saddened to hear the news about our beautiful Maria. She was such a warm, caring, honest, and amazing individual that always thought of others before herself. There are not many people out there like Maria and we truly feel blessed to have had her in our lives. We know she is in heaven right now with her mom looking down upon us and smiling that Maria smile.

“ Maria served as one of our maids of honor. She was a good friend and we served in her wedding. Her loss is just hitting home now. Her smile and laugh are the things we will miss. They could light up the world.

Debbie has known Maria all her life. Debbie remembers pushing the stroller at the house in Taylor. Maria's love of Ron, Liliana, and Eva were the primary force in her life. We know that even with her passing, that love shines on.

Family and friends wish we didn't just have to remember Maria. She was one of the good ones. The type the world never seems to get in enough supply. Cry now, but remember her smile.##imported-begin##Richard & Debbie Allman##imported-end##
