“ Memories of beautiful flower and vegetable gardens, all the wise tips, seeds and plants, the phenomenal smells from Marie's kitchen that wafted across the street, the stories and how proud she was of her children and grandchildren, sitting outside on a warm summers night, her thrill of collecting porcelain Christmas houses and her children putting up the outside Christmas decorations. Marie will be so missed by her friends and neighbors...our street will never be the same. Rest in peace sweet lady..till we meet again.

“ To the Buccellato Family we are deeply saddened by the passing of your dear Mom, Marie, our Commare. We are sorry we are unable to pay our respects in person, because of the passing of my Sister, Barbara Cucci, whose funeral is the same day. May they rest in peace. Mariano and Fanny Finazzo.
