“ Aunt Mary always had a smile on face. She enjoyed sharing stories of places she had lived or vacationed throughout her life that or things she had experienced while traveling all over. Thank you for sharing them with me over the years. You will be missed dearly by so many and will forever and always be loved. May you rest in peace, Aunt Mary

“ I have many memories of you aunt Mary ones I'll treasure and think of often. My oldest memory I can think of was when you lived on Rosemont trying to give me tomato soup and I refused to eat it. The many times you would sing with my mom years of hearing you two sing. I believe I have recordings of these I'll have to share. The time when you were transitioning between houses and lived with us. To the times I worked in your yard on Roan. The few years you and I worked together building testing cable assemblies for our quality control department. The many stories you shared while traveling across the world. The many Thanksgiving and Christmas dinners to all the birthdays and random family outings we shared. You will be forever missed love you so much. I'm sorry I didn't make it this year to see you and I'm regretting it I didn't. Say hello to my mom

“ Dear Mary I am so sad that I can't give you one more hug and have one more visit with you. 36 years ago I moved next door to you and Jim. You were like family to me. I know you are reunited with Jim, your parents and sisters and all the others gone before you. You will be in my prayers!
Love, Annette
