“ Dear Louis and Family,

We are at a loss for words to express how sorry we are to hear of Marilyn's (a/k/a Shortcake) passing. Although you all went through a difficult time during her illness, our thoughts and prayers have always been with you. We admire your devotion as her husband and that of her children.

We will always remember Marilyn's smile, the good times we shared during our summers at Robinwood, the visits over the years, playing our favorite card games and her Yorkshire Pudding. We loved to see her dance and enjoy our times together.

Marilyn, rest in peace, and may the Lord give all of you the courage to carry on and cherish the memories.

*All our love,
Angie and Joe*
