“ Mary was always smiling and pleasant. She was humbled by the love and care given by Geralyn, Tim and Tara. We were touched by Mary when she shared with us her childhood, her marriage to Tony and their lives together as a couple and as parents. Mary appreciated having Tim as her primary care giver. We have never known or heard of a son-in-law as Tim who was so determined and dedicated in keeping his mother-in-law healthy and comfortable.

Our prayers and special thoughts go to Geralyn, Tim and Tara as their memories of Mary continue to fill their lives with her love. Certain that Rudy is happy and at peace with Grandma, too.

Love and God Bless a Very Special Lady and her Family, Ed and Liz

“ Mary was a true joy always caring and thoughtful. I enjoyed all our times together. Amazing cook and baker. Funny that Geralyn's mom and mine shared birthdays and both of our dad's were Tony's. Mary will be greatly missed but she is now at peace bringing Tony up to date. Two extraordinary wonderful people reunited

“ When you take just a few moments to think about my extraordinary mother, a couple of key thoughts come to mind.

For a woman who only had a mother for the first eight years of her life, she remembered most how much LOVE her own mother had for her three children, despite losing her husband at a very young age. She would often say that if she thought hard enough, she could actually feel her mother's arms around her. She always spoke of how she never had a mother to see her graduate, get married, and have her own family. Several years ago she expressed to me how she had always dreaded Mother's Day. Hearing this stabbed a dagger through my heart. I told her how Mother's Day was OUR day to celebrate what a fabulous mom she was to US!! I never wanted to hear her say that again. And she never did.

My mom was my best friend for all of my life, until the day when I had Tara. On that day she whispered to me, that I now had my new "best friend." I would not trade ONE day that I had with my mom. She guided me, taught me, advised me, fed me, and above all, LOVED me with everything that she had to give.

During the years that she needed me most, it was my turn to "mother her." It was with great honor and love that I guided her, taught her, advised her, fed her, laughed with her, cried with her, and LOVED her with everything I had to give.

Mom, I am WHO I AM, because of the woman and mother you raised me to be. It was your goal and my goal to raise our daughters to be wonderful wives and extraordinary mothers. Thank you for being the BEST GRANDMOTHER in the world to Tara. She will never forget you.

I love you with all my heart.

“ Auntie Mary will be remembered when she took us in after the accident Mom had with the car. It flipped 7 and a half times. We ended up in the trunk and Sylvia was under the dash board. A couple pulled us out after they got the car opened which wasn't easy. But then they took us to Auntie Mary's House and she served us Cocoa Puffs. She fussed over all of us and we all felt sooooo loved. That is how she was.
RIP Auntie Mary

“ Grandma, I remember the first Christmas I spent at your house. I was 8 and nervous. I remember walking down the stairs in the living room and seeing the glowing tree with a million (and one) presents underneath. :) I was stunned to find out that so many of them were for me. I had never had a Christmas like that before! It's the kindness, of course, that I will always remember you and Grandpa showing me that day. I was thankful to be a part of your family. I'm sad for all of us but I am happy for you that you are with Grandpa.

You'll always be in our hearts.

TO

“Mary, you weren't a mother in law to me you were a full time mother in place of my own. We went thru so much and weathered all the storms together. For four years every night when i started your treatments we knew we were one team one goal to do the best for you. Your Rudy was so special where ever we went, Our opening question when we went for a medical check up was not about your day but how was your Rudy doing. I would not change anything. You at peace now with Tony and Rudy together. He made sure he wasn't going to be left behind this time when you left him. I know your looking down on all of us no more pain no more needles no more me getting you up at 3 AM for treatment adjustments. It is your time now your free to spend your time now with the angels. No one knows how much a mother is missed until you open the door and see the empty chair she sat in. I see both your's and Rudy's Rest in peace and thank you for letting me be your care giver. It was my honor to be with you and care for you and share the times we had together some better then others. Give Rudy his milk bones and enjoy your new journey. Until we meet again your son in law Tim.
