“ John & Ann Sicklesteel

I am so sorry to hear about your Mom. Even though there are no words to express your loss, look at God's track record along your life's journey and decide that you will continue to trust God. Walk away from doubts and fears, run with a new confidence for the trustworthy one runs along side you and know that your Mom is watching in the grandstands in heaven cheering you on.

“ Mr Sicklesteel, John & Ruth

Our thoughts and prayers have been with your family since we learned of her illness. Our favorite memory was being welcomed by her during the week of John and Ann's wedding. She truly made us feel a part of your family. We will always remember that kindness.##imported-begin##Michael , Nancy, Jacqueline, & Mikey Lau##imported-end##

“ On a warm summer day Mrs. Sicklesteel would bring John and I sandwiches and lemonade while playing. Mrs. S. provided many happy and warm memories in my life. A few days after my grandma's passing, Mrs. S sent me a letter. The letter had a prayer in it and I thought, what a kind and thoughtful thing to do. My deepest sympathy to you my friend and family. Mrs. Sicklesteel was a special person and will always be in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Robert Dominas##imported-end##
