“ Losing a child is one of life's cruelest pain, especially for her parents. Time will go by, but the pain only changes and becomes as much a part of you as your love for her. Hold fast to her children and each other as you traverse this world without her. Family and friends will never forget her.

Sincerely, Virginia Chrispen and Natalie Leonard, your neighbors.

“ Some of our favorite memories of Missy will be her beautiful singing voice (though she never realized how good she was). One Christmas she was singing “Let it Be” from the movie Frozen on a karaoke machine and it sounded like the original! We will remember how beautiful she was on her wedding day. We will remember her love of animals and how she had wanted to live on a farm with lots of them and how she rescued animals including our dog Bear. We will remember her love of gardening and how she planted a beautiful garden every summer. She was excellent at knitting and made all different shapes including animal shapes that were perfectly done. She loved riding snowmobiles and four wheelers sometimes too fast! She always liked to mention her crooked pinky fingers as they resembled her dads. We will miss her laugh, but most of all we will miss the happy memories that could have been. Her free spirit will be missed forever until we all meet again. Love always Marissa - Dad and Teresa
