“ Margie and I met at Madonna University in 1953. We were music majors and shared classes, practice sessions and recitals. She looked forward to weekends when parents or her special young man, John, picked her up each Friday and brought her back to Livonia on Sunday evening. Margie was a great friend throughout college and after. May she rest in peace and enjoy her New Life in Heaven. My sincere sympathy to her family.

“ Marjorie was a respected Lakeview educator and long time friend. I worked with Marjorie at Harmon school and she was one of the most organized teachers. When I was laid off I subbed in Marjorie's room for her long term surgery leave; we met regularly to discuss students, curriculum & various topics. At that time we bonded and shared many stories & times together. After we retired we kept in touch for the Harmon teachers luncheons and we always enjoyed our times catching up. She was a dedicated mother, grandmother & great-grandmother always very proud of her family. May she rest in peace as she is reunited with John. Sympathy to her family.
