“ I was very lucky to have Mardi as my next door neighbor for 15 years. She always had a smile on her face. I never saw her angry. She had great stories and I enjoyed spending time with her. I just found out today and am sorry I was not at her mass. Sending prayers to all of her family. You all really took great care of her. I will miss her laugh and smile. I hope to have at least some of that spunk when I get to be her age! Sincerely, Sue Mackey and family

“ I will always remember and love Aunt Mardi for teaching us Spite and Malice, having candlelight dinners on a summer evening at the cottage, loving playing the slot machines at Soaring Eagle Casino after a wonderful dinner, enjoying her one whiskey and water cocktail (or maybe two), her love of chocolate, playing Bridge, telling stories of teaching and of her fellow teachers and former students, her generosity, kindness, love of her family, Russ, the cottage, throwing social dinner parties, attending Curves for Woman three times a week well into her 90s (we could all aspire to be able to do this), her independence, stubbornness, referring to herself as "good old Mrs. Peirce", being so supportive of me by cheering me on in my pursuit of my PhD, sharing delicious recipes, knitting the girls booties, hats, and scarves, referring to Owen as "Master Owen Meier", always being someone I could seek advice and wisdom. She was a wonderful, special lady and I am a better person for getting the opportunity to know her. I will miss her dearly. RIP Aunt Mardi. Know you were loved.
