“ I'm thinking of all of you and sending prayers your way with my love. I will always remember a car ride with Uncle Mark and Aunt Gloria in South Carolina after cousin David's wedding, laughing and sharing stories. I've always had a hard time with goodbyes because words fail to capture the feeling, but part of an old Tennyson poem comes close: "Gone - flitted away, taken the stars from the night and the sun from the day! Gone, and a cloud in my heart."

“ Really sorry, Gloria.
Mark, you will be missed by your large family and relatives and friends. I remember when you and Gloria were first dating, then you got married, had three kids, managed more than one Marshall's store, helped the family of Dolly's nephew, opened your home to many grandchildren and great-children, visited elderly relatives often, visited this elderly relative when Charissa got married, told a lot of funny jokes, and cooked some good food.
Dolly and I send our condolences to your grieving spouse and your children, and their children -- and their children.
Gloria, I'd like to second what Sue Collins said in her comment, please "remember to take care of yourself and get as much rest as possible."
Love you.

“ Dear Gloria and Family - Roger and I did not know in 1967 that we would continue our friendship and double Pinochle game playing for decades! Whenever we were together we always laughed and enjoyed/cherished our bond of trust, respect and shared our fears and wonderment over the past and future. Our hearts will always remember Mark as a great friend and comedian. We often laugh about his stories and the way he told them--most always surprising me because I never saw the punch line coming! I know you all will comfort each other and you will be comforted by the love he showered on all of you. His courage through his illness and faith will always be remembered. We will be there to see you in person in the coming months. We know you have a strong and large support system, and we know you are all strong people. Gloria, you and Mark lived each day fully. Take comfort in that fact and I know your memories will hold you up for a long time. Remember now to take care of yourself and get as much rest as possible. We love you and you are in our hearts and prayers. Call if you need to -- anytime!
Love, Thoo and Roger

“ Dear sister, Gloria, and family. We send our deepest sympathy to all of you and share your sorrow. We always will have fond memories of our many family gatherings and enjoyed Mark's wonderful hospitality whenever we visited. We will always remember how he could make us laugh, even when he was in pain. He had a unique way of telling a story or joke like no one else. He was probably the most dapper man in our family and was always dressed to the nines no matter the occasion. Mark, may you rest in peace knowing the beautiful memories and fine example you have left for all of us. You taught us how to suffer with dignity and you never lost faith. Thanks for everything, dear, dear brother-in-law. We love you.
