“ When I heard, I couldn't believe it. Mr. C, you were one of my favorite teachers I ever had; nobody else could top your humor, sense of fun, and awesome clarinet playing. I know you're tootin' that horn somewhere better now though!
God bless, Mr. C.##imported-begin##Justin Vanhaverbeck##imported-end##

“ You were a great music teacher. I remember all the times we had in Band and how even though we would get on your nerves and storm off into your office that you never gave up on teaching us.

“ Aww Mr. C :(! I think you knew I was pretending to play clarinet instead of actually playing it and I miss the times you let us all eat in the bandroom, that was the best haha. My class will miss all the good times we had with you. Our prayers are with you and your family.##imported-begin##Emily Porzondek##imported-end##

“ *My prayers and deep sympathy to Mark's family. Mark taught at Hatherly Elementary during my teaching days there. He was always joyful, positive, enthusiastic and totally dedicated to family and music education. He preached the gospel, by the loving way he lived. It was a pleasure to know him and work with him. He always went the extra mile with a smile.
May God bless you as you bear this sorrow and pain.##imported-begin##Suzanne Kochanowicz##imported-end##*

“ I have known Mark for the last few years as he and I joined St. Sylvester choir at the same time. We also both worked for Warren Consolidated Schools. Mark made me laugh and his smile was contagious. He always had a joke to tell and I had to SHUSH him when we were trying to practice singing. We always commiserated about happenings at school and what problems the children gave us. You left too early Mark, but now you can go play your music for all of those with you. Peace to you and your family. Watch over me with my little munchkins, OK?###imported-begin##Nancy Fox###imported-end##

“ Mark now rest's in the Lord. As one day we all will. I think of Mark as a loving son, brother and father to his family. A hard worker, teacher and loving parent to his children Brian and Emma. God made us a family. We need one another. We played together and pray together. Lord keep us together today and always . God Bless you all. Aunty Joan###imported-begin##Aunty Joan###imported-end##

“ *Mark,
For all the joy you've brought into my life not only as a great cousin but as a music mentor. I still remember all the lessons we had together and all the gold medals I won because of your help. I guess it was time for GOD to change to radio station and listen to some different music. Its hard for us here, but we know that you are in a beautiful place were angels will here your music and be thankful.*

We miss you.

Love,

Raymond, Heather, Emily, Macy, and Ben
