“ Marlene has left us far too early. She was a blessing to know and to work with at PSB. May her family find comfort knowing that where she is now there is no more suffering, no pain, no tears and no sorrow. The healing so many of us have been praying for has finally come, according to God's plan which we can't begin to understand. She is safe and at peace in His hands and we'll see her again someday.
