“ To Mark and the entire Ziolkowski Family Let the peace of God which passes all understanding comfort and keep you all during this time. Words cannot express the depth of loss but only Holy Spirit can fill the void which has been left. Take joy in the memories you have, the legacy she left and the examples she shared with and through each of you. Let the circle of the family which remains hold one another dear and be the source of strength to carry on.

“ Dear Mom

*My Rock (My Mom)
Sometimes I catch myself
Thinking, "When I phone,
I can talk of this or that!"
Then remember, I'm alone*

*She was always there
To answer my calls -
To listen to my "small talk"
Or when I climbed the walls.*

*At times, I didn't feel like talking And somehow, she understood -
Didn't say she wished I'd call Or make me feel like I should.*

*Now, I wish I would have More times, to show I cared -
To say, just how important
Were, all those times we shared.*

*I could have shown my love
So much more than I did -
I never, did it enough
Even when I was a kid.*

*Now it's too late to do or say
All those things I wish I had -
No way to ease the pain inside
When my heart is sad.*

*She was my "anchor" to this life -
The "rock", that I clung to -
The place, where I could turn*

*When, nowhere else would do.
Now, the ravages of time
Have worn my "rock" away -
And all I have to cling to
Are memories of yesterday*

Mom words can not explain how I feel right now, Now your with grandma in heaven and looking down on the family, My self and your grandson Kyle will be in our prayers everyday knowing that your the best Mother and Grandmother any one could ask for

God Bless you Mom

“ My deepest sympathies to the Ziolkowski family. May you find comfort in the wonderful memories you've shared together and in the promise found at Revelation 21:3,4 here Jehovah (God's personal name Psalms 83:18) promises that soon sickness, death, mourning, and pain will be no more. And that soon we will be able to see our loved ones again by means of a resurrection, that promise is found at John 5:28,29. May this promise bring you comfort at this sad time.

Sincerely, Glenda
