“ Our deepest sympathy to all the family of my Uncle Marty. He was a good man, and you couldn't find a more compatible couple than him and my Aunt Jean. They were very special people and I consider myself to be blessed to have had them in my life. It is hard to lose loved ones in a short timeframe, but God works in mysterious ways. He does what is best though it doesn't seem so at the time. Trust the Lord and find peace in Him.

Your legacy was witnessed during the forty years I experienced life with you. Your love of wife and family, we enjoyed our interest in nature together even up to the flowers I planted in your window boxes on Memorial Day. Your interest in local and national politics could always spark much conversation. The many car rides we took just driving aimlessly and enjoying the passings going by. Your gentleness and kindness for all will be remembered utmostly. Thus Martin you will be missed greatly by me and all those who came in contact with you throughout your ninety years. I love you, Dad.
