“ Dear Alam family, I am so sorry to hear about your loss. As your hearts are full of grief and pain, I pray that your family will draw comfort from the promise from God found in John 5:28, 29. Here we are assured that soon our loved ones will be resurrected back to life. May God prove to be your true source for strength and hope during this most difficult time.

“ Aunt Tina,

I will always miss you and think of you often. Anytime I had the opportunity to get together with the family; I always made a point of sitting with you and catching you up on where my crazy life was taking me at that particular time. You will always be special to me and to our family. Although distance kept us from seeing much of each other; you will always be a wonderful Aunt and friend. As a Christian; I know that you are with our Heavenly Father God Jehovah and with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. Nothing could be more comforting to us who selfishly will miss you here. I am glad you were able to meet my Wife Jennifer, but I selfishly would have liked more time with you like everyone else. I speak in the present tense, because this isn't final. May God continue to bless you always in his Kingdom until we meet again.

With All of Our Love,

“ Sorry for your lost there is something I would like to share with you about a promise that Jehovah our God has told us. In regards to what grand things the future holds for us . Imagine a place where there will be no more pain, crying, sorrow, death . This is the promise. that God will give us according to his word . The bible at Psalm 37:29 these things will be of the past.

“ I will always cherish the times we spent together and all the wonderful memories we had. You were always concerned about everyone and how our kids were doing. You taught me what the word "courage" really meant. If I had a hero in my life, it would be you. If anyone had a reason to complain it would be you, but you never did. You took everyday as it came with a smile on your face and never let on that you were hurting inside. I will never let your memory go and I will always remember what you stood for and what you went through. As the old saying goes "when they made you they broke the mold", no truer words were spoken. You were not just my sister, but my best pal. Sue, the kids, and I will cry that you are no longer here, but we all know that where you are at is where you need to be with the angels in heaven. Mom, Dad, and Chester, Pat, Ronnie, and Jr. are with you now and what a reunion that must be! Some day we will all be together again and we can all laugh and be a family again....till we meet again it's not goodbye, but see you later, Tina, Love you, Dave.

“ Tina was a shining light in the lives of everyone who knew her. She always had a smile on her face, and a kind word to say about everyone. Even when her own health was poor, she would never complain to anyone. Whenever I would ask her how she was, she would say "I'm good Suzi. Really, I'm okay." And she always expressed her love and concern for all. I feel truly blessed to have been able to be with her when she went into the hospital this last time, and she was worried that I would catch her "flu" and bring it home to Mason. I promise Tina that I will embrace your positive, loving, faithful heart and hold it near and dear in mine. Until we meet again, Love you always, Suzi
