“ My fondest memory of "Marty" is the time us cousins all went fishing with the Uncles. I can still hear Marty yelling FISH/FISH everytime he hooked one. I can still see him laughing at the rest of us as we hung our heads over the side of the boat 'feeding the fish' (just got a lil seasick).... Marty you and your brothers will always be in my heart.... Love you Aunt Connie and Uncle Rusty and may God be with you..... Cousin Ray###imported-begin###Cousin Ray###imported-end##

“ Martin was my classmate of 1974, even he was in my classroom a long time. He was very smart guy I had ever known. We usually called him nickname "65" because he was very taller guy in our class of 74. He was sweet guy and had a heart soft, too. We shall miss him and God will take care of him in heaven forever. I will never forget him.....##imported-begin##Jan Russell##imported-end##

“ Marty was a student during my first years as a teacher in Sterling Heights for WCS. He "took pity" on me because I did not know sign language, having come from training in oral methods. He let me know what was going on in the classroom until I was able to sign. He was encouraging, helpful, kind and supportive of his classmates as well as myself. He set the standard for what I hoped to help other students become. He will not be forgotten.##imported-begin##Susan Casselman Williams##imported-end##
