“ 8th grade football was the best season I've ever had. Coach Yoast was extremely funny, and he also had a big heart. Every day he walked into the locker room, he'd yell "Brad Pitt in the house," cracking everyone up. He taught a ton of valuable lessons, not only in football, but life.

Marvin had a grin that went on for miles and made his eyes twinkle. Oh how he could make me laugh! He is one of a kind and there will never be another Marvin. My heart is sad but I know he is in a better place. Until we meet again....you will not be forgotten here on earth*

“ I'm profoundly saddened to say good-bye to someone as special like Marvin. Wishing your family comfort and strength for the days and weeks ahead. I'll be thinking of you all. I worked with Marvin for many years and we were good friends. Marvin was an exceptional work colleague. It was so fun to work with him, he was always in a good mood, positive and very funny. He really had a way with people. Marvin always kept people rolling in laughter because he could find humor in the most mundane life circumstances and he loved to scare the shit out of me, OMG..especially when I least expected it. Everyone loved him. He was laughing all the time and he made everyone around do the same. Thinking of Marvin, we immediately see his big smile. He was both a work partner and a true friend. There are some people that make work and life, worth it, even on the dreariest of days-that was Marvin. Thinking of all the times we had.... I'll never forget you!

“ My sincere sympathies to Marvin's family and loved ones who enjoyed their time with him. It's hard for me to acknowledge that Marvin is gone. We graduated high school together and enjoyed playing sports, music, etc. We also had fun off school grounds and followed all driving speeds and never drank a beer until we were of legal age. (Twitter says this is not true). So many laughs throughout those early years and although I had not spoken to Marvin since 1987 when I saw him in LA; but often spoke about this funny man to many people throughout my life. I'm laying by the pool after a long night drinking root beers and he sneaks up and screams "say yaya"! I love you Marvin and will ride my HD in your honor.

“ Marvin you will always be remembered as my very good friend that I loved like a brother. We worked side by side off and on for 30 years at three different companies and had a lot of laughs together. Marvin could always light up a room with his Humor, he make me laugh so hard it would hurt. He was a hard worker and was good at his job what ever he did. He always talked about his two sons that he loved very much and was very Proud of them. He also loved his wife Kris very much and talked about how he Appreciated everything she always did for him. Marvin you will be missed. love you brother. Steve Kozlowski
