“ Mary was always smiling; her joy was infectious! You could not be in her presence and not smile! What a blessing she was to so many. I bet her smile lit up the clouds when she passed! Marice, Alexa and Michael and Amy; please know what a special blessing she was. My heart and prayers are with you!

Love,

Mrs. Billy-DeRain . . . beloved mother of my dearest and lifelong friend. So many fond and wonderful memories . . . for sharing her enthusiasm and love to me. Spent many a day (and night) in her beautiful home on Rosedale Court. She delighted in her daughter Marice's achievements, beauty and activities. Marice and I spent many hours there getting ready for high school events, hosting parties (hee, hee, hee) and watching Superbowl Games in front of the fireplace with Chinese food - she called us her 'fireside girls'. May we all be blessed with positive and loving outlook on life.
