“ Aunt Mary, you were loved by so many and you truly will be missed. I so enjoyed the visits we had, sharing a laugh and a beer. You lived a very long and wonderful life. I believe you are happy in your heavenly home with Uncle Vic, the love of your life.

“ Aunt Mary was always the brightest light and happiest person in the room! I have fond memories of coming over to your house, as Marlaine, Gary and Jimmy were designated sitters for my brother Dan and I. One of the highlights was walking to pick up pizza with Gary. Your home was so loving. Vic and Mary always smiling and happy. I love them both so much. May eternal light, the light she carried with her always, shine upon her. Peace and comfort to all.
