“ My Godmother. I love You So much. I wish we would have talked once more before you crossed over. You are always kind, thoughtful, loving, and tried your best to be a neutral party between people with squabbles.
As I am sure you are perfectly aware of now, we are all connected. These bodies are only a vehicle. I spent roughly 8 minutes on the other side and know I can speak to you anytime and I will likely meet you again. I love you "Aunt Mary"

“ I am soooo sorry for all of you! Also, for myself, it's a rare thing to have a best friend for 57 years. She was the best. Besides our regular talks we spoke every holiday, I called Thanksgiving just from habit. I so wish I was there to see her off with all of you. You are in my heart and in my prayers. Love, Aunt Shirley
