

Mary Jewell Eliason

September 7, 1920 - October 4, 2019

Mary Eliason, at the age of 99, passed away after a long battle with dementia. Mary was predeceased by her husband Barry of 40 years who passed away in 1991. She is survived by her daughter Carol (Ken) Wolowiec, grandchildren Kristen (Jeff) Wiese and Kyle (Lindsay) Wolowiec, and great-grandchildren, Elijah Wolowiec, Catherine Wolowiec, Caroline Wiese, and Weston Wolowiec. Mary was born on September 7, 1920 to Frank and Hazel (Johnson) Merrill in Fairbury, Illinois and moved to the Detroit area in 1938. Mary attended Bethany Baptist Church in Clinton Township for many years serving as a Sunday school teacher, deaconess, and greeter, and was involved in all of the senior groups and outings. She was passionate about voting, and worked at the election polls for many years. She loved socializing and never turned down an invitation to go out with friends or family. She was a voracious reader who also enjoyed word search puzzles and watching bull riding on television on Saturday evenings with a bowl of popcorn. She was smart, witty, a good listener, and loved to laugh and make others laugh with her. Mary made a difference through her positive outlook, ability to accept change and be content in whatever her circumstance. She will be remembered for her smile, her kindness, her humor and lengthy storytelling, her faith in God, and her strong love and devotion to her family. She will be missed and loved always.

A private Memorial Service is planned.
