“ *Darlene,
Our very special friendship began in Kent, Ohio in 1944 when we met as neighbors and it continued lovingly and even stronger as the years went by. I cherish every memory of fun, laughter, and happiness that we had as well as remembering the tears that had to be shed over our 69 years of togetherness.
Rest in peace my special friend. You certainly deserve God;s love and care. Your friendship, encouragement, kindness and trust was a God given gift to me that shall never be forgotten.
Love

Meeting you at St. Peter's was truly a gift for me! Your encouragement to me through my mother's illness and death truly was a blessing. You blessed me with confidence and prayer when my daughter had health setbacks. I will treasure your spirit of faith and giving.

I will miss you dear friend, but I thank God you will not suffer anymore in His beautiful kingdom! Hug your son tight until we join you in paradise! Rest in peace Darlene! I know God saved you the best parking spot in heaven! My thoughts and prayers are also now for your family.

*Love,
