“ So sorry to hear of your Mom's passing. She was such an iconic figure at St. Mary's! Remember her grocery shopping trips on Wednesdays when I would watch you all! Think of her words--"offer it up for the poor souls in Purgatory". Sure she is home with Our Lord and your Dad. Prayers--Mary Margaret (nee Beauvais) Powell

“ What a beautiful lady. My friend, my heart, like a mom to me. We sang together, laughed and cried together. Shared stories and became good friends. I love you Mary and miss you so much but we will see each other again. My heart goes out to her wonderful family. Thank you all for sharing your mom with me. I love you! Maria
