“ All of the Capuchins here at St. Bonaventure Monastery, and at the Solanus Casey Center in Detroit are surrounding Mary's wonderful soul with our love, prayers and Masses. Our hearts go out to all her large family that feel the loss of her presence among us. May she rest peacefully now in the loving arms of the Father.

“ Mary was my Aunt. Although I was only 7 when we left Michigan, and I had not seen her since I was 6, I do remember her. I remember her squeezing my shoulder and smiling at me. We were relocated to the west coast in 1963 and never returned to Michigan. (Now the only one of the original family left is my Mom). You all were so lucky to have her as long as you did. She must have been very happy. RIP Aunt Mary.
