“ Mom.
In the rising of the sun and its going down, We will remember you.
In the blowing of the wind and the calm of its stillness, We will remember you. In the opening of buds and in the rebirth of spring, We will remember you. In the blueness of the sky and in the warmth of summer, We will remember you. In the midpoint of the year and at its beginning and end, We will remember you. When we are weary and in need of strength, We will remember you. When we are lost and sick at heart, We will remember you.
When we have joys and tears to share, We will remember you. As long as we live, you too shall live, for you will always be part of us, And we will continue to remember you.
I am so happy there is no more pain or suffering for you.
Love you very much,
Your daughter,
Trudy Ella

“ Just have to say this, I so remember when Bob would come walking over to Rose& Bob's house and Mary would always say " Here comes Bob Steinbrink , that always made her so HAPPY to see him coming over with his work boots, socks and cut off Levis on. We had so many good times going over to see her and listen to all her stories.
Also have to mention all the great times we had in Deford camping.
Mary had such a good time hanging out with all of us. We were all drinking and having fun, she enjoyed being with all of us and never said any thing about us being drunk. Bless her heart for always being so kind.
Rest in peace Mary
