“ For me being at the Price’s house was a little bit of home. That familiar southern accent, our conversations and time together always meant a lot. I can see her standing on the porch as I got into my truck giving me some advice, more like a parent, giving strong advice, but with much love. it was just the nudge I needed. My condolences to Mr. Price, whom I have great respect for, and the entire Price family. May God bring you all peace and comfort during these coming days. Love, Lisa Casada 🙏

“ Dear Price family, please accept my sincere condolences on the passing of Granny. Ever since her grandson (Dallas) and I became friends 12 years ago, she became my granny. She always put a smile on my face when I had a bad day. I’m so fortunate and blessed to have met this wonderful woman. May her memory live and be eternal. - Roman Kapitanec.
