“ Hello Patty, I am so sorry for your loss. When we passed in the doorway at the hospital on Saturday night I couldn't stop to talk. So sorry that I didn't. My husband Bill had surgery on Friday to have the lower lobe of his lung removed, cancer. Very rare type especially since he is not a smoker. He had called me and said he wasn't doing well. He is home now and on the mend. Again, my prayers and thoughts are with you now. Take care. Dianne Thiel

“ Mary will not be forgotten as she was a devoted mother and a child of God.

She asked very little for herself in life, but what she accomplished was that her family grew up believing in God and were devout Catholics.

We can all see her as we look at her children and grandchildren. Mary definitely made an impact in all of our lives and will not be forgotten.

Your place in heaven allows eternal glory. (Amen.)

Dear Family, When I heard that your mom had died on Easter Sunday, it just confirmed to me that she was one of the very few chosen ones whom our Lord called "home" on such a special day. I know she was a wonderful mom and grandmother who loved much and cared deeply about her kids and grandkids. I also know that your heart is breaking despite the realization that she is free from the pains of earth. May she rest in peace in the arms of our loving Father. It can be tough to lose your mom but her memory remains with you forever! Draw strength from your Catholic Faith and the memories of mom that make you laugh out loud, inspire you to reach for the stars, or remind you of her tender heart. God bless each one of you!

*Hugs,
Smokie, Mike & David*
