“ To Mary's family . . . may the many memories we all have of her sustain us until we are all together again. Even though my family moved away many years ago Mary and her family have often crossed my mind. I have spent the weekend going over old photos of when we were all kids and it brought many a smile to my face. You are all in my daily prayers. - Teresa (Zasada) Hayes

“ My husband is across the hall from Joe at Shelby Nursing Center. Mary was pure sunshine and light. I had many an endearing conversation with her and many laughs. She and Joe were a precious couple. My heart is full right now 😞 She was very much loved and will be deeply missed. Michelle, we have met. I promise you that when I am in to see my husband, I will continue to visit Joe and sit with him. He is a dear. Much love and ongoing prayer for the family. My deepest sympathy...

“ Mary was such a warm sweet person, and always made me feel welcome. She always thought of others, and asked how Joe was feeling when he was ill. We loved seeing her with her granddaughter. We will both miss her kindness and beautiful smile.

“ I will miss Mary. As a brother-in-law, I was always welcomed into their home with love. The family gatherings throughout the past seasons were always special. The inseparable love I saw between my brother Joe and Mary was something to envy. Again, I will truly miss her. The memories of her and family will always stay with me.
Love from a brother-in-law and an Uncle to two fantastic daughters. May God hold you close...until you and Joe one day are reunited.

“ So sorry to hear this sad news. Mary and Joe were so devoted to each other. My mom, Aunt Stella, loved when they would stop by for a visit. She always referred to them as Mary and Joseph. Joe and Mary were so devoted to one another. Take comfort in the memory of the good times, the love shared, and carrying on the traditions Mary held dear.

“ I will always remember how wonderful she was, even around the holidays. always ready to share a laugh or joke with you. all the family around, just chilling and eating and being "mary". Now she can rest in the knowledge that she brought up 2 strong women who are spitting images of her spirit and strength, so the legacy will never die. Chin up everyone. sending nothing but love and hugs from london. miss you all.

“ God Bless Joe, Michelle and Jennifer and their families as they go through this extraordinary hard time. Uncle Ron and I will remember, with smiles on our faces, being welcomed during the holidays, to open arms and hugs, and to a feast of food comparable to none. We always looked forward to these gatherings, knowing how lucky we were to be part of it all. Thank you.

“ Mary was such a sweet, caring young lady. Always had a smile on her face and always asked how her fellow employees were doing even though she cared a lot of weight on her own shoulders. She will be deeply missed by many. God rest your soul and give you eternal life in the Golden Heavens
