“ I wish this was a nightmare we could all wake up from. There is still so much to come that you should be here for, it's not fair that we have to do these things without you. Learning life from you has been the most rewarding thing. You taught me patience, you showed me love and what it was like to live life to the fullest. I would not be who i am or where i am in this world without you. Thank you for everything you ever did for me, without any ounce of hesitation. I don't know how to go on without you but i do know that i was to continue to live life and make you proud. I love you so much.

Aunt Mary you will be missed dearly by all of us in the family and friends. We all love and will miss you forever. I will miss all the texts you sent me and how we would see how each other was doing. Now you are at peace and not suffering in pain anymore. Love, Debra Dagnall
